THE CHEMICAL COMPANY (TCC), A GLOBAL DISTRIBUTOR OF CHEMICALS, COMPOSITES AND PLASTICS

TCC is a privately held, financially stable, chemical distribution firm built on a reputation of ethical business practices. Our philosophy of developing strong relationships with producing partners and clients on a global scale has resulted in exceptional continuous growth and fiscal success.

Our future is determined by the strength and stability realized from long-term planning and solid relationships.

As a privately held company, TCC's efforts are focused on carefully orchestrating business relationships designed to strengthen our suppliers and fulfill the needs of our clients. We are committed to our employees, and we are dedicated to bringing long-term stability to our customers, suppliers, and vendors. We continually make adjustments to adapt to fluctuations in the marketplace as well as source products from reliable, well-vetted suppliers worldwide. Consequently, TCC has grown into one of the top chemical distribution companies in the Americas and abroad.

OUR MISSION

Our mission is to strengthen our industry relationships through sound business practices and strategies enhanced by transparent communication. After three decades of hard work, our most valuable asset as a company is our integrity. We motivate our customers, suppliers, and producing partners to look to TCC for guidance as well as industrial needs by setting the example of handling every business transaction with integrity.

We are a fiscally responsible organization, driven by the successes attained by our employees. Our goal has been and always will be, to fulfill the needs of our customers, suppliers, and employees with professionalism, fairness, and courtesy.
